

Topic: Gandhidham Tourism Assignment using HTML Module

- Started by gathering information about Gandhidham's tourism attractions, history and climate.
- Determined the general layout and navigation of the website.
- Created a visually stunning and user-friendly website layout.
- Selected the appropriate colour schemes, fonts, and pictures to improve the aesthetics of the website.
- Planned the layout of different sections, including the content areas.
- Settled up the development environment, including HTML and CSS tools.
- Created the separate HTML pages for each section, such as Homepage, About Us, Contact Us, and Climate.
- Implemented responsive design techniques.
- Added necessary form elements for the Contact Us page, including input fields for Name, Email, City, Message, Phone Number and Address.
- Built a table for the Climate section, including columns for Month, High/Low temperatures, Humidity, and Rainy Days.
- Implemented proper link structure and ensured that the About Us, Contact Us, and Climate links redirects to their respective HTML pages.
- Wrote an engaging and informative content for each section.
- Included relevant images of Gandhidham's attractions, landmarks, and scenic views.
- Provided concise yet comprehensive details in the About Us section.
- Integrated the designed layout with the developed HTML pages and ensured that the consistent styling across the website.
- Tested the website's functionality, including form submission, link redirection, and responsiveness on different devices and browsers.

Learnings and Conclusions:

Learned how to use the HTML module as a simple form of building the simple webpages and linking different webpages.